

Sponsors

Less than a year away

6th EuCheMS is now less than a year away to take place. This month of September has seen several important milestones in its organisation. We highlight them in this newsletter we hope you enjoy.

Registration is now open

Registration is now open for 6th EuCheMS. You can enjoy early bird discounts if you register now. Get connected to all the news and updates with our newsletter if you register. To learn about all the possibilities, discounts and fees,

Read more

Themes and Topics

The Scientific Committee has announced congress Themes and Topics. The congress will cover eight major Themes which will in turn develop a total number of 29 Topics that deal with a whole range of Chemistry issues, applications and specialties. Make sure you review them.

Read more

Topic conveners

Topic Conveners have been recently appointed. Thus, every topic is already assigned to a convener specialised in the issue. You can review their background and experience now.

Read more

Call for abstracts

The Call for abstracts process is already available. All the guidelines, information for authors, submissions and important dates are published and detailed in... Read more

Access the Abstract submission form already available in the congress website. The online abstract submission deadline is April 1st, 2016.

Register NOW

Supported By

Media Partners

Why do I get this?

Unsubscribe from this list

Update subscription preferences